Never Be Thirsty Again
John 4:1-18

1. Take time to review the Covenant of Fellowship with your small group (use the bulletin or find it on our website here). What aspects strike you as especially important in your life right now? What aspect is hardest about this covenant for you to follow-through on?
2. What stands out to you about Jesus' approach to breaking social and cultural barriers? How do Jesus' actions here encourage us to engage with people different from ourselves?
3. In what ways have you tried to quench your spiritual thirst with temporary solutions? How have you experienced Jesus' living water in your life?
4. In what ways does Jesus' offer of living water fulfill Old Testament promises (e.g., Isaiah 55:1, Jeremiah 2:13)?
5. How does the concept of living water point to the Holy Spirit's work in our lives?
6. How can this story encourage you in your efforts to share the gospel with others?

What do we see about Jesus?

Jesus breaks down barriers, and He offers living, eternal water that quenches our thirst
