True Disciples Have Seen God
John 14:7-14

1. How is religious freedom different than the idea of religious pluralism (two illustrations of this: blind men and the elephant / many paths to reach the top of the mountain).

What does it mean practically to stand unapologetically on Christ's exclusivity in a persuasive way? Is there someone in your life that you are burdened to share Jesus with this week?

2. Jesus says in John 14:7 and 9 that "Whoever has seen me has seen the Father." How does this challenge common ideas that God is distant or unknowable?
3. What stands out to you about Jesus saying, "the Father who dwells in me does his works"? (vs. 10). How does the concept of "abiding" (meno) prepare us for John 15?
4. What does Jesus mean by "whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do"? How does Jesus going to the Father make greater works possible?
5. How is praying in Jesus' name different from simply adding words at the end of a prayer?

6. What kinds of bold prayers should we be praying that clearly align with the character and mission of Jesus for His Father's glory?

Schedule for Memorizing John 15:1-17

January 11 - John 15:1-2 "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch in me that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit.

January 18 - John 15:3-4 Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me.

January 25 - John 15:5-6 I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned.

February 1 - John 15:7-8 If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples.

February 8 - John 15:9-10 As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love.

February 15 - John 15:11-12 These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.

February 22 - John 15:13-15 Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you.

March 1 - John 15:16-17 You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. These things I command you, so that you will love one another.
