A Declaration of Independence

Having been created as free persons in the image of our Creator we chose to rebel and placed ourselves apart from God and under the tyranny of sin and death.

A Declaration of Independence

Now by faith in God's appointed One I have been redeemed and delivered from the kingdom of darkness and its prince of lies and destruction.

The power of sin in my life has been broken and it is no longer master over me.

A Declaration of Independence

The power of death and hell has been shattered by the victory of Christ in His resurrection and guarantee of glorification for those who are His.

The condemnation of the Law has been replaced by the righteousness of Christ in my stead

A Declaration of Independence

The indwelling Spirit of God enables the renewing of my mind so that the world no longer darkens, distorts or deceives me, but instead the Spirit instructs me to live righteously and godly in this present age.

A Declaration of Independence

I am free because the Son of God has truly set me free to live to the glory of the One who formed and redeemed me.
